

AVID IDEALOGY: 'New Narratives of Economic Progress for a Connected World', a panel discussion with Sudhakar Ram, Royston Braganza and Rajni Bakshi

This July, join us @AVID IDEALOGY for an unconventional conversation that challenges the current constructs of economic progress and success and breathes life and hope into a new sustainable future.

Inspired by Chairman, Managing Director and CEO of Mastek, Sudhakar Ram's book, titled 'The Connected Age', this panel discussion will envision a future world order that works for the people and the planet with Sudhakar Ram and CEO of Grameen Capital India, Royston Braganza, in conversation with Gandhi Peace Fellow at Gateway House, Author and Expert on the Open-Source Economy, Rajni Bakshi.

AVID IDEALOGY is curated not just as a passive panel discussion, but rather one where audiences are invited to actively engage and share their inputs. and co-create new visions. We are keen that Mumbaikars from all ages and backgrounds attend this talk; from economists, banks and financial sector professionals, other professionals, NGO's, government and public sector staff, students, creative enthusiasts, homemakers, senior citizens and other city residents.

So come share your views and be a co-creator of progress and wellbeing for a new connected civilization!
